A shepherd after our Lord's Heart

Our Lord says:

“My friends,
As you have stated: ‘let Your presence shine upon us,’
– Yes – My Face will shine upon you in times that you don’t expect. For I want My Glory to touch you. That is why I am preparing you. That you may receive more of Me and more of Me You can give to others. They must see My Face shining upon you: through your deeds, through your smile and through your prayers.”

Amen

Adoration at St. Patrick's

"One who I call to a life of reparation must not fall into lukewarmness and the lack of generosity. These things are the very opposite of what a call to reparation signifies. I have called you and set you apart to live day after day in My presence and to adore my Eucharistic Face."

Kid's Corner

While Jesus' baptism is recorded in all three synoptic Gospels, Luke's account includes Jesus as one with the crowd of people who are being baptized. Only after the baptism, and while praying, Jesus' divine identity is revealed. The words from heaven provide the fullest "naming" of Jesus the Christ. To cling to the word of Christ therefore is to cling to the word of God. To live in and through him is to live in and through God.

The early followers of St. Francis of Assisi were attracted like a magnet to him. They knew what they wanted: to respond to God's call to live the Gospel life.
