Fridays in Lent

5:00 pm

EPHPHATHA - Be Opened

Lent invites us to follow Jesus into the wilderness, the place where Satan's half-truths are exposed. The devil begins with identity: "If You are the Son of God..." He is not denying Jesus' Sonship; he is daring Him to prove it through self-reliance. We hear the same whisper whenever life gets hard: "If God really loves you, why are you hurting? If He cares, why isn't your life easier? Why not take control yourself?" The truth: God loves us steadfastly. The lie: love should always feel comfortable.

Then Satan twists Psalm 91 into an invitation to recklessness and presumption: "Jump. God will catch you." We hear that too: "Push the limits. Do the risky thing. God will bail you out. He's merciful, right?" The truth: God is merciful. The lie: mercy means anything goes.

Finally, Satan offers Jesus a shortcut to glory: "Skip the cross. Take the crown now. Just bow once." We meet this lie daily: "It's only this one time. It won't hurt anyone. Take the easy road; no sacrifice needed." The truth: the earth is the Lord's, and salvation comes through obedience. The lie: Satan can offer what belongs to God alone, and suffering has no purpose.

Satan lures us toward trusting ourselves. Jesus leads us into truth, obedience, and life. Here we stand on a battleground of the heart. Whose banner will we follow?

PONDER IN GOD'S PRESENCE:

Lord Jesus, reveal the half-truths that have shaped my heart. Teach me to recognize Your voice with clarity and trust, so that I may follow You faithfully on the path that leads to the cross and to life.

Adoration at St. Patrick's

"One who I call to a life of reparation must not fall into lukewarmness and the lack of generosity. These things are the very opposite of what a call to reparation signifies. I have called you and set you apart to live day after day in My presence and to adore my Eucharistic Face."

Fridays from

Kid's Corner

Both Luke and Matthew write a detailed account of Jesus being tempted in the desert right after the "high point" of Jesus' baptism in the Jordan. It is not accidental that each temptation occurs in a special place: the desert, the temple, and the mountain. The Bible tells us that each of these places pulsates with the possibility of encountering God there. One by one, Jesus needs to make clear choices as to what kind of Messiah God intends him to be. This passage also has both Satan and Jesus quoting Scripture, thereby illustrating that knowing Scripture is not enough – it must be properly interpreted and lived out.
