EPHPHATHA - Be Opened

“My vocation is love.”

Many people wonder what they are meant to do, where they belong, and how to live the life they've been given. This was also true for St. Thérèse of Lisieux. She saw the many different paths others walked and desired them all, yet her own life seemed small. So she turned to Scripture. She read St. Paul describing the Church as one body with many members, and she began to see that all these different roles are animated by one reality: love. But this is not a love where we choose God first. It begins the other way around, with God choosing and loving us first.

What she discovered is echoed throughout Scripture. In Exodus, God says: “I bore you on eagle’s wings.” Before the people did anything, God carried them.

In Romans, St. Paul says: “While we were still weak, Christ died for us.” God does not wait for us to be perfect. He loves us as we are.

In Matthew’s Gospel, Jesus sees people who are lost and hurting. His heart is moved with compassion, and He sends His disciples, saying, “Freely you have received; freely give.”

Is this not the same pattern in our lives?

God acts first. He carries us, forms us through what we experience, and allows our hearts to be broken open so we begin to see and love others as He does. Then He sends us.

This pattern is reflected in the Eucharist: taken, blessed, broken, given. At every Mass, we are reminded that this is what God is doing in us.

St. Thérèse discovered that beneath every path, the deepest vocation is love.

Our vocation is to receive that love and to give it freely.

PONDER IN GOD’S PRESENCE:

Do we spend time getting to know God and His love? What are we waiting for?

Kid's Corner

Discipleship involves mission. Seeing the crowds as "sheep without a shepherd" and recognizing that "the harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few," Jesus summons his 12 disciples and gives them authority and instructions. The disciples' mission replicates and extends the mission of Jesus in preaching "the good news" that the Kingdom of God has come near, and in healing the sick, casting out demons, and raising the dead. For now, their mission is not to the Gentiles, but only to the people of Israel – later, after the death and resurrection of Jesus, the mission will be extended "to all nations" (Matthew 28:19).
